

Irish Social Policy Association

Child income support policy in Ireland: Reflections on the report of the Advisory Group on Tax and Social Welfare on Child and Family Income Support

Date: 17th April 2013

Time: 3pm to 6pm

Venue: O'Callaghan Alexander Hotel, Merrion Square, Dublin 2

The seminar will be opened by
Ms Joan Burton TD, Minister for Social Protection

Speakers:

Professor Tony Fahey, School of Applied Social Science, University College Dublin
Ms Camille Loftus, Research and Policy Analyst
Ms Ita Mangan, Chairperson, Advisory Group on Tax and Social Welfare
Professor Gerry Whyte, Professor, School of Law, Trinity College Dublin

Admission:

- Members of the Irish Social Policy Association: Free
 - Non-members: €20
- Students and unwaged: €5

Please register here

to book a place at this important seminar.

The Irish Social Policy Association was established in 1997 to provide a forum for the analysis, discussion and development of social policy in Ireland, North and South. Membership is open to all at a rate of €30 per year with reduced rates for students and the unwaged.

Membership applications and renewals for 2013-2014 can be made at the seminar.

For more information see our website www.ispa.ie